JYMMY KAY DAVIS PRESIDENT - WPRA

I hope everyone is having a beautiful Spring. I love this time of year - it's a season of sunshine, rebirth and growth. We can all use a little of that in our lives!

Congratulations to Kay Blandford for holding on to number one in our World Standings. Kay and her little "Angel" continue to run tough and consistent. Congratulations also to Jolene Stewart who is currently jockeying for the Judd Little Ranch. Jolene and Sooner Superstar were the big winners at the Futurity at the Diamond W Arena in Alvarado, Texas last month. We will look forward to seeing Kay, Jolene and many other superstars at our WPRA Finals this October back at the Diamond W Arena.

October will be a busy month! Many of you already know that our motion for preliminary injunction against the PRCA/PWBR was denied earlier this month in Colorado Springs, Colorado. We were understandably disappointed, but not too surprised as it is very difficult to win a preliminary injunction since it is basically shutting a business down until trial. However, we are trial is now scheduled for October 22-31.

I would like to personally thank all the Board Members that attended the injunction hearing - Kathi Myers, Chelle Wahlert, Kim Thomas and Jolee Lautaret. You ladies are jus the best. Also thank you to Eva Jean Smith, Tim Gentry, Dolli Lautaret, Ardith Bruce and Bonnie Wheatley for standing with us. Also a special thank you to all the witnesses who testified for the WPRA whether in person or by phone. We appreciate your time. To our attorneys, Dana Eismeier and Murray Weiner - you gentlemen are fantastic! Thank you for all you have done, and continue to do to protect the best interests of the WPRA! (I take back all the attorney jokes I have ever told.)

For now, we will focus on our business and continue to take one day at a time. Our office will be mainly run right now by our Directors and Eva Jean on a volunteer basis until we get through this trial. We will continue to promote all of our new programs as well as protecting and promoting our business and our brand.

Officer and Director elections have been postponed until the first of next year in an effort to cut down on expenses and to keep all of our attention on the running of our association. Please keep in touch with your Directors. We value your opinion and your membership.

Thank you again to all who are walking this journey with us!

Jesus loves you.
